2024 IAPC World Conference

New Orleans, Louisiana

April 10 – 11

The IAPC World Conference will take place at the historic Cabildo on Jackson Square, New Orleans.

2024 IAPC World Conference Overview

The International Association of Psychology and Counseling (IAPC), invites you to join us for the IAPC World Conference – April 10 and 11, 2024. We are excited to hold our conference in New Orleans, Louisiana at the historic Cabildo, located on Jackson Square. In addition to outstanding scholarly presentations on a variety of research, education, and clinical practice topics, the conference will include social and cultural events for conference attendees.

The IAPC World Conference takes place on dates immediately preceding the annual conference of the American Counseling Association. The French Quarter Festival Weekend takes place immediately after the IAPC Conference. IAPC is offering a limited number of rooms - Tuesday, April 9th through Sunday, April 14th, at the Hotel St. Pierre located in the heart of the French Quarter, a short walking distance from Jackson Square.

We invite you to join us for the 2024 IAPC World Conference which will combine world-class scholarly, clinical, scientific presentations with an opportunity to experience the food, music and culture of historic New Orleans, Louisiana.

The International Association of Psychology and Counseling

IAPC was founded in 2021 as an interdisciplinary and international association dedicated to excellence in education and clinical practice. IAPC is unique in that we are interdisciplinary – membership is open to professionals, paraprofessionals, and students in all “helping fields” – such as psychology, psychiatry, marriage and family therapy, counseling, social work, clinical rehabilitation counseling, behavioral medicine, addiction treatment, school counseling, psychotherapy, pastoral counseling, etc. IAPC is international. IAPC members are clinicians, educators, and students from throughout the USA and more than 23 countries. Our Association was founded on core values of open scholarly inquiry, the unfettered exchange of ideas, collegiality, and professional practice informed by research and clinical experience.

IAPC members come from a variety of backgrounds, cultures, religions, philosophies, nations, and professional identities. We share a common desire to expand knowledge to better inform society and help others. As individuals we are committed to helping people address challenges of the human condition to bringing about a better world. Many of our members are passionate about issues that impact their communities. Through professional engagement, we disseminate fact-based research and clinical knowledge. As a scholarly and scientific society IAPC does not advocate for any political ideology or worldview. All perspectives informed by research and scholarly inquiry are welcome. Information about IAPC membership may be found at www.intapc.org. If you are not yet a member of IAPC, we invite you to join us in advancing our mission to promote excellence in education and clinical practice!

Conference and Hotel Packages

IAPC has secured a block of hotel rooms for conference attendees at the historic Hotel St. Pierre – a short walking distance from the Cabildo. Rooms are available as a conference registration option on a “first come” basis. Space is limited and early registration is encouraged.

Hotel St. Pierre – IAPC Conference Hotel

On the National Register of Historic Places, the Hotel St. Pierre, with its authentic French Colonial cottages dating back to the 1700's, embodies the architecture, romance, and ambiance of a bygone era. Contributing greatly to the hotel's charm is the relaxed atmosphere of this quiet residential section of the French Quarter. One would never guess its proximity to world class dining, culture, and the lively nightlife of Bourbon Street.

Traditionally decorated rooms and suites include period-style furnishings, plus minifridges, microwaves, flat-screen TVs with cable channels, and free Wi-Fi. Some rooms have 18th-century details, chandeliers and/or balconies. Secluded lush tropical courtyards, balconies, 2 pools, and multiple fountains help make this the perfect spot for an authentic French Quarter event.

Parking Notice - Now offering offsite self-parking with Premium Parking: $20 plus tax per night. Both single occupancy (one King Bed) and double occupancy rooms (Two Queen or Twin beds) are available (maximum of four persons per room, including children) with IAPC conference registration.

IAPC World Conference Registration and Hotel package (five nights)

IAPC has arranged a five-night hotel package (arrival on Tuesday, April 9 and departure on Sunday, April 14, 2024). This hotel package offers the best available rate and allows IAPC conference attendees to attend the IAPC Conference and remain in New Orleans for the ACA conference, and/or the French Quarter Festival which takes place on the weekend immediately following the IAPC Conference. The IAPC hotel five-day hotel package is inclusive and covers ALL taxes and fees. Cost is “per room” (typical occupancy is one or two people, maximum of four occupants) - $ 1,775 (five nights hotel accommodations and one conference registration)

Independent booking directly with Hotel St. Pierre (three to five nights)

Additionally, IAPC has reserved a block of rooms with Hotel St. Pierre, which IAPC conference attendees may book directly with the Hotel for stays of three to five nights. A discounted rate is offered to IAPC registered conference attendees who wish to book directly with the hotel. IAPC Conference registrants will be provided a discount code and may call the Hotel directly for reservations. Space is limited.

Travel to New Orleans

Flying to the IAPC Conference - The New Orleans Airport (MSY) “Louis Armstrong Airport” is a major International Airport served by major airlines. Upon arrival, ground transportation is available to the French Quarter by Taxi, Uber, or Car Rental.

Presentation Proposal Submission

IAPC World Conference presenters who wish to share their knowledge and experience are invited to submit a program proposal to the IAPC Conference Program Selection Committee for peer-reviewed selection. Presentation formats include a classroom-style Presentation (60 or 90 minute), Poster Session, or Online Presentation via Zoom at the IAPC Preconference Institute (Saturday, April 6, 2024).

Every effort will be made to accommodate a preferred presentation format. However, given the limited program schedule, Poster Sessions are encouraged. Conference registrants will be notified of their presentation format on a “rolling selection” basis, typically within two weeks of submission – conference registration is required of all presenters. The conference program will be finalized in early January 2024.

Priority consideration will be given to presentation proposals based on original clinical practice-based research, expansion of clinical skills, or professional topics relating to education, training, supervision, ethics, and professional practice.

To submit a presentation for consideration, email the following information to Brian@intapc.org :

- Title of presentation
- Short paragraph summary for inclusion in the conference program
- Name, highest degree, and work title of Primary Presenter
- Curriculum Vitae of the Primary Presenter
- Names, highest degree(s), and work title(s) of co-presenter(s)
- 1-2 page detailed description of presentation (for peer review – do not include presenter names)
- Three goals or learning objectives
